

CHAPTER 26

Eva was having sex with herself in a brutal way, her legs' hands scratched the ground while one by one, their 5 heads were independently trying to maximize the pleasure that her body was capable of offering. Righty and Midi with lots of breasts and dicknipples, Lefty driving his other tail to "play" with Maya, penetrating her with 4 penises, while four others were making out and masturbating several penises, rubbing the glans against each other. Virgin and Penny going in and out wildly... And Eva still (she would remember later) felt a certain need, since 13 penises were still unattended, between her legs and on her own butt, but she couldn't give enough!

Every moment it seemed that she was reaching an impossible limit, and a few seconds later Eva found herself surpassing it, before each new penetration by Penny, Maya's penetrations, Virgin's vaginas, Middi's dicknipples...

But then, after what seemed like an eternity, Maya began to not take it anymore, and began to ejaculate, first with a penis, then a vagina, then two more penises... until within seconds all her remaining sexual organs, they coordinated to explode in a multiple orgasm that she had never experienced before. Maya hugged Eva's tail tightly, pressing her breasts against her, trying not to fall unconscious from the extreme amount of pleasure from her.

Perhaps out of simple empathy, or infected by Maya's sensations, Eva's penises between her legs also began to ejaculate, as if they were a Versailles fountain, almost also coordinated in a great and multiple orgasm that caused, as if it were a castle of cards, that the dicknipples will also ejaculate. Midi, Lefty and Righty cried out in delight at the sensations as large amounts of cum spilled over and into Maya. Seconds later, Penny and Virgin began to scream as they felt an unstoppable wave build inside her as she finally came inside herself with Penny. The two twin vaginas also suffered an orgasm proportional to their enormous size. Penny pressed against Virgin as she ejaculated, trying to penetrate herself as much as possible as wave after wave, she kept ejaculating what seemed like gallons of semen. The two heads were squeezing each other, kissing passionately, covered in sweat, simultaneously feeling the male and female orgasms in perfect harmony.

Neither Maya nor Eva were able to tell how long the climax lasted... it could have been 3 minutes... or even 3 hours, as they lost track of time.

They only noticed that little by little everything stopped, the impulses of the penises to continue ejaculating calmed down, and little by little, everything calmed down, passing from pleasure to a sensation of peace and calm as if it were a drug. The injection of dopamine into the blood must have been in the order of liters. Maya continued to hug Eva's tail, which still had 4 penises inside her, and didn't seem to want them to come out.

Penny continued inside Virgin, her head resting directly on her clit, sinking between the lips of the large vagina like pillows, while Virgin's head swirled around Penny. On her side, Righty and Lefty ended up embracing each other, while Midi, a little taller than them, wrapped her arms around them as if seeking some support after such a brutal experience.

In this state of limitless peace and contentment they were for quite a while. They didn't need to say anything. The feeling of well-being was so great that they didn't want to interrupt her with empty words. For the first time, they felt a connection between the two so great that they felt like one body.

It would be hard to tell if in that state, they fell asleep or just in a trance. Just as it would be difficult to say how much time passed. But there came a time when the two began to notice a certain uncomfortable sensation of cold and humidity. Normal, considering that they were completely naked, sweaty and covered in flow and semen.

"Hello"

Maya said tenderly looking at Eva again. Her gaze expressed total well-being. It would have been an hour actually, although it felt like a whole day, but since the big ejaculation, they hadn't said anything again.

"Hello!"

Penny also answered with happy and grateful eyes. Now out of Virgin, and with her glans completely retracted, her entire tail moved closer to Maya without using her arms. What to say after such an experience? It was not necessary to say anything, just with the looks, everything was said, but the real sensations were beginning to be a little uncomfortable. So it was Maya who came back to reality a little bit.

"I think I need a shower" Maya said, looking at herself still surrounded by the penises of Eva's second tail. Reacting to this, the same tail began to retract, sliding between Maya's body, causing chills and a little pleasure as it slowly trickled out of her.

"I think so do I. But, you're going to have to help me."

"Of course, silly, don't make that sad face. Anyway, have you noticed how skillful you've been?"

"What are you talking about?"

"Meanwhile we were... you know, each of your heads was focused on one thing"

Eva thought for a while, remembering the scenes and she was right

"It's true. How did I did it?"

"I imagine that the need is what forces you to manage yourself. In situations like this, your own body must bring out its instinct and make it possible for you to move as you really want. Therefore, the key is not to think about how to move, but to think directly about what you want to do"

"It sounds very simple, but I don't know if I can do it now"

"Well, little by little. I'm going to take a shower first and then I'm going to clean you up."

When Maya got up, her legs were still shaking, perhaps because of how relaxed she had been. Anyway, having 8 was not going to be a problem running out of support. Stepping into the shower, and starting to pour the water over her and lather her up, she was left wandering in her thoughts. Especially focused on what she had just experienced, and how things had changed so much. She looked down, and she grasped one of her already flaccid penises, regarding him curiously.

What had repulsed her before, now looked quite different. And looking around her a shiver of excitement ran through her as she came back to the idea that she actually had 8, plus her eight vaginas. "I really am lucky..." she thought

"And Eva..." she couldn't even conceive the sensations she must have experienced. But what was to become of her? where she was going to live now, her parents, her relatives, her career... Indeed, everything was going to change. But it was still early to worry about so many things

Maya came out of the bathroom with a towel tied under her lower arms, so that only her lower breasts were covered, up to just before her knees. A towel wrapped around her hair also gave her a sexy look, especially because of the glans peeking out from under the towel. With her lower arms she held a basin with water, sponge and towels
"Okay, it's your turn, right? Where do we start?"

Maya cleaned Eva as well as she could, enjoying Eva's own body in an unspeakable way, and Eva also repressing her own libido, although the effort they had just made helped them maintain a certain "calm". But the two would remember this scene fondly. For Eva, it was discovering her new body with a very close person, making her feel very comfortable, and Maya, with her newfound passion for mutants, had in Eva the greatest expression of a mutated body. She was in glory.

A few hours later, Maya received a message claiming her at home. Her parents were worried and she had family obligations to attend to. Eva got a little nervous, but Maya calmed her down:

"It's okay, I'll let Rob know, we agreed that we would take turns, right? You won't be alone, don't worry."

"But... Do you think Rob... won't be uncomfortable with me?"

"You'll have to get used to it, right? anyway, you already know him. Surely you will be able to make him see things in a way... well, from your point of view"

Maya winked at her as she began to dress her lower arms, while her upper arms moved frantically typing on the mobile keyboard.

Maya left, promising Eva that she wouldn't spend much time alone, Rob was on his way, and she would be back the next day. As soon as she was alone, Eva had a great feeling of emptiness. From her central torso, she had the impression of being surrounded by people, from her other torsos and heads, but she was actually alone. The feeling of being overwhelmed by her began to attack her again, especially when she tried to move with her legs without success. Not being able to move was something frustrating.

Luckily, it wasn't more than 20 minutes before Rob knocked on the door. Again, Penny opened the door, and this time more prepared, Rob greeted her and crawled across the floor to the living room, where the rest of Eva was.

Eva's three torsos greeted her shyly, and instinctively she tried to cover herself. She didn't realize that she was still completely naked, in front of her friend! But there was so much to cover up, and even with so many members, that she wasn't able to hide her

'embarrassment'. Rob also felt self-conscious, hardly daring to look at her directly, so many sexual organs, breasts, the two huge vaginas... her numerous penises...

"Hello..." Said Eva with Virgin

"He... Hello... what... how have you been?" Rob said, trying to act normal.

"Well..." She couldn't tell what had really happened with Maya, she would die of shame

"Maya... she has been helping me a lot"

"And... do you feel better? last time you seemed so overwhelmed"

"Yes, I'm... a little better but, I still don't feel... I don't feel like I'm in control of everything." either"

Virgin's arms gesticulated pointing to herself.

Rob was visibly uncomfortable talking to a pair of Siamese vaginas.

"Yeah..." Rob's eyes kept circling, trying not to stare at any part of Eva's body. She, also, felt embarrassed, having to show her friend so many bare parts of her new body that she had so little control over.

For what seemed like an eternity, an awkward silence settled over the room. But Eva thought that was absurd. She had dealt with these situations herself in each of her own friends' transformations, including Rob. And now she felt ashamed? her common sense tried to take over the situation.

"Rob... Rob!! Look at me... "

But Rob felt a little taken aback

"Rob! Up here" Eva said with her central torso, Middi.

Rob wasn't sure which head to look at, but he soon found the head that was talking to him.

"If you feel... uncomfortable here, with me, seriously, you don't have to stay, I understand perfectly..."

"NO!.. I mean... no, really, I'm fine"

"Are you sure? I know I'm very impressive. I'm sure I'm grotesque and horrible, and you must be really scared."

"No, really, don't talk nonsense. You shocked me at first, but it's all good now..."

Eva knew Rob, she had never minced words to say the first thing that came to her mind, but he was strangely shy and evasive. She decided to put it to the test. She relaxed all the arms she was using to cover herself as much as possible, exposing all of her breasts, and slightly spreading her legs, exposing all of her penis.

"Then you won't mind if I relax, it's hard enough to keep me tense like this"

Rob turned red as a tomato, but in a stoic way he focused his gaze on her eyes.

"No, of course... you can do... whatever you want, if you don't mind me seeing you naked, of course"

"I don't think I have a choice right now, do I?"

But Rob tried not to look directly at his multiple sexual organs.

"Rob...really. Relax, I don't mind if you look at me, you seem... shy, it's not normal for you..."

Rob seemed to be making a superhuman effort to keep the situation under control.

"Shit, Eva, you don't make it easy for me..." Rob closed his eyes as if forcing himself.

"No... I don't know what you mean..." Eva said bewildered.

But Rob kept silent. He seemed to be holding his breath, as if he was carrying a heavy load on his shoulders. Until finally there was the sound of a zipper being suddenly opened. Then at the end of his body, a watermelon-sized glans protruded from the "sock" Rob was wearing, growing and growing, coming out of the fabric, until in a few seconds the penis that was now half of his body was gone stood fully erect in the middle of the room. Rob covered his face in shame, while Eva, tremendously surprised, looked perplexed at the situation.

"Oh my god... Rob... I... I... sorry!" She said embarrassed at what it was clear she had provoked. But Rob remained totally rigid, resting his arms on his own testicles, motionless from the waist down, covering his face in shame.

"I knew this was going to happen, it was inevitable"
